

NOW HIRING!

LOCK HAVEN CITY POLICE

ABOUT US

The City of Lock Haven is a Third-Class City in the heart of Clinton County, PA. The City of Lock Haven is the largest municipality in Clinton County with a 2.3 square mile jurisdiction and a population of 9,770 people. The City of Lock Haven is the home of Lock Haven University. Lock Haven City Police Department has 14 sworn officers, 2 civilian personnel and 2 part-time parking enforcement officers.

QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates must be a U.S. or naturalized citizen; graduated from high school or equivalent; physically, medically, and psychologically fit for performance of police duties; good moral character; licensed motor vehicle operator, minimum age of 21. Applicant must have successfully completed a basic police training course given at a Municipal Police Officers Education and Training Commission certified school by time of hire.

A written Civil Service examination and physical performance testing will be administered in Lock Haven. Written examination and physical test will be administered on October 12, 2019.

BENEFITS

- $48,949 starting salary
$57,476 after 2 years
- Health insurance starts date of hire
- Initial uniform issue and duty weapon provided
- 12 sick days,
16 vacation days,
11 holidays,
4 personal days in the first full year of employment
- $900 uniform allowance
- Post-retirement health care

LOCK HAVEN CITY POLICE

20 E. Church St
Lock Haven, PA 17745

570-893-5901

lockhavenpa.gov

Contact us at:
hiring@lockhavenpa.gov

APPLICATIONS DUE:
SEPTEMBER 30, 2019